

Dear Dom Pérignon's Chef of Cave, Mr. Richard Geoffroy

Mr. Richard Geoffroy: Chef of Cave of Dom Pérignon (July 15, 2013)

Mr. Geoffroy comments on the Dom Pérignon's official homepage

"The legacy of the Abbey of Hautvillers, where Dom Pierre Pérignon lived, is beyond technical, it is first and foremost spiritual. Inspiration finds me here, as I walk its grounds and I become one with this space, with no objective other than remaining true to the timeless essence of Dom Pérignon."

Dr. Shida replies to Mr. Geoffroy

"The effect of the bottom (secret place) where the candidate meets the broker who can contact a university in secret is beyond technical, it is first and foremost spiritual. Mind and motivation find the candidate there, as the candidate talks about his or her connection and/or money for the entrance examination with the university through the broker, and become one with the university, with no objective other than spiritually remaining true to the essence of the backdoor. Chef of Cave, today's special dinner with Dom Pérignon Champion is wonderful for us living in the 21st century to understand the 'Doping - Backdoor Theory' before hearing the world's first academic comments of the professor of Harvard University about it this year (2013)."

July 15, 2013

Replied by

Yukihisa SHIDA, M.D., Ph.D.

The Doctor and Chairperson of Sports — the fastest pace in history
Team Doctor of the Japan Table Tennis Team (1990-1994)
Chairperson of the International Table Tennis Federation Sports Science Congress (1991)