Mr. Morton Johnston
 General Manager
 Regent Hotel
 Taipei, Taiwan

Dear Mr. Johnston,

I stayed at the Regent Hotel in Taipei on April 15, 2018. I appreciate your kindness in allowing me to stay at the Regent Hotel Taipei and to give a comment to you, as I did at Osaka University, on April 16, 2018.

Mr. Morton Johnston : General Manager of the Regent Hotel Taipei (April 16, 2018)

Dr. Shida provides an explanation to Mr. Johnston

“Some high-class medical students from Taiwan became a doctor after graduation from private universities in Japan. And Taiwanese bartenders at the Hotel Nikko Taipei and Hotel Okura Taipei (Both are the members of the One Harmony Hotel Group) agreed that Taiwanese people usually don’t identify themselves with the rich international students or doctors from Taiwan who had paid 60 million yen or more (?) for medical educational expenses on April 15, 2018. On the other hand, many middle- or lower-class Japanese (one of seven children is poor in Japan, etc.) who often identify themselves with the upper-class medical students or doctors and talk as if they were a doctor (Inflation of the faculty) in Japan, like Swedish people see the celebrity’s pictures from Sweden at the Stockholm International Airport. One of the reasons is, only Japanese public mass media, NHK (Japan Broadcasting Corporation) also continues to give us exactly the same news and reports, from every one of anchors, without a single exception in the 21st Century. [For example, the Asahi Shimbun Company appealed on November 10, 2016 that it aims to be a ‘Real estate company which publishes newspapers (Kaku-Fudousanya)’ in Japan in the future!] President of NHK, Mr. Ryoichi Ueda comprehensively supervises news report programs including the “Today’s Close-up,” and Japanese can understand the following as opposed to the academic homepage ‘chairperson.jp’. Most Japanese paid less than 50 million yen to become a medical doctor to private universities. That gave an impression to our society that just Taiwanese students to Japan paid 60 million yen or more (?) to become a medical doctor at private medical universities in Japan and Teikyo University is the solo backdoor money-powered university in Japan in the 21st century which used an entrance-examination broker like the Okinaga Family which is famous for the entrance-examination broker (not pharmacist) of Teikyo University. Then, can we put an end to this point at issue between Mr. Ueda (Bachelor of law of Hitotsubashi University, President, Ark Hills Club - class) and Dr. Shida (Doctor of Medicine of Mie University, Chairperson, Roppongi Hills Club - class) in Japan in the 21st century? To tell the truth, it already had ended on April 16, 2018. At an alumni reunion of Fujita Health University (private university) that has a Japan’s largest university hospital (1,453 beds), if the university calculated the accurate amount of medical education expenses that exceeds 60 million yen «559,100 US$», which is 70 million yen «652,300 US$» (1 US$ = 107.32 yen as of April 13, 2018), then it means that NHK and Mr. Ueda has given incorrect information to the society on the public TV. In case of less than 50 million yen, it means that Dr. Shida and academic homepage ‘chairperson.jp’ announced wrong data to the world this century. Either Mr. Ueda or Dr. Shida will be accused of his sloppy calculation (Zusan-no-soshiri). General Manager, the Japanese publishing company did self-restraint about the Taiwan nightlife guide book in Japanese after Dr. Ma Ying-jeou, (former) Taipei Mayor who graduated from New York University School of Law and Harvard University Law School pointed out those in a rage that give a wrong impression to our society in January, 2002. President Barron Philippe de Rothschild who graduated from Harvard Business School sent a letter of apology and his wine to the guests in March, 2018. When he (Mr. Rothschild) didn’t come to his Barron Philippe de Rothschild Wine Dinner at the Allain-Ducasse Beige restaurant Tokyo organized by the Diners Club, by reason that his airplane had been delayed two times in France, the guests complained on February 8, 2018, saying ‘He (Mr. Rothschild) is a swindler. Probably, he should have intended not to come in the first place.’ ‘NHK and President Ueda...’ or ‘chairperson.jp’ and Chairperson Shida’ should learn from these examples after drawing a line under this debate in the near future.”
