

Questions and Answers at the 49th, 50th, 51st and 52nd University of Tokyo Medical Education Seminars

Lecturers : Daniel R. Wolpaw, M.D. (Professor, School of Medicine, Case Western Reserve University, USA and Project Associate Professor, International Research Center for Medical Education, University of Tokyo «2003»)

Jeffrey Wong, M.D., FACP. (Professor of Internal Medicine, Medical University of South Carolina, USA and Project Professor, International Research Center for Medical Education, University of Tokyo «2012»)

Questioner: Yukihiisa Shida, M.D., Ph.D. (Team Doctor of the Japan Table Tennis Team «1990-1994», Chairperson of the International Table Tennis Federation Sports Science Congress «1991»)

Dr. Shida asks Prof. Wolpaw and Prof. Wong

I couldn't attend your lectures at the 48th University of Tokyo Medical Education Seminar on November 1, the 49th Seminar on December 12, 2012 and can't attend the 51st Seminar on March 28, 2013 because of my part time job at a hospital for elderly patients located a 20-minute drive away from the Narita International Airport in which I usually see most of outpatients. This is a question raised at the 50th Anniversary Seminar for two professors from the USA, Prof. Daniel Wolpaw and Prof. Jeffrey Wong. What do you think about two representative professors of the University of Tokyo Medical Education Center who did the University of Tokyo's traditional "Academic Harassment" to the doctor and chairperson of sports? Prof. Kazuhiko Yamamoto dropped his head abruptly when he passed me (Dr. Shida) or we saw each other on March 14, 2012 and Prof. Kiyoshi Kitamura did quite the same harassment on May 22, 2012, like Mr. Hideya Sugio, Vice President of the TBS (Tokyo Broadcasting System) News had done to one of other anchors in the TV News program before. Then, they and their cronies spoke ill of me such as "Baka (foolish)," "Ochiru (inferior)," "Kiteiran (reject to join a meeting)," "Tsukaenai (no ability)," "Okashii (sickness)" ... behind my back. [If possible, please refer to the 13 papers written in Japanese or English at the University of Tokyo Medical Education Seminars in 2011 and 2012.]

Prof. Wolpaw and Prof. Wang reply to Dr. Shida

No comment.

Dr. Shida replies to Prof. Wolpaw and Prof. Wong

Nobody has admonished teachers and graduates of the University of Tokyo, saying "Why don't we stop our 'Academic Harassment?'" Our thoughtless attitude has a significant adverse effect on the others' minds and motivations." I even feel sorry for them. I hope all first-class doctors would listen to my apprehension and become strict with yourselves and your academic clique by being considerable to others and discuss/coordinate yourself first.

Information related to the Questions and Answers

This message will be received by the World Economic Forum (Davos Forum) this winter indirectly through many high-class hotels in Davos and Geneva.

Mr. Michael Hoferer: General Manager of the Steigenberger Grand Hotel Davos (January 15, 2013)
Mr. Ivan Rivier: General Manager of the Beau-Rivage Hotel Geneva (January 17, 2013)

Dr. Shida provides an explanation to Mr. Hoferer and Mr. Rivier

“Prof. Atsushi Seike, President of Keio University (private university, Japan), and Prof. Kaoru Kamata, President of Waseda University (private university, Japan), have never given us any comments on their own traditional backdoor at political or economic forums. Prof. Fumimaro Takaku, President of the Japanese Association of Medical Sciences, has overlooked the ‘Zero Marks Medicine’ by Tokyo Medical University (private university), at meetings because he is a ‘Oyabaka (doting parent).’ On November 7, 2012, Mr. Jacob Schlesinger, a journalist and winner of the Pulitzer Prize (2003) and Japan editor-in-chief for the Wall Street Journal, refused to talk with me at a seminar. Universities, associations and mass media know my ‘Chairperson 20th Anniversary Treatise,’ but all themes have never been discussed at forums, meetings or seminars.”

General Manager (Mr. Ivan Rivier) didn't contact me after I sent my letter to him from Japan. So the very idea is that the owner (Mayer family) of the Beau-Rivage Hotel whom I had not seen, too was unaware of every detail or aspect of that general manager's operation, and frankly, it's very insulting.

And the cocktail “Chairperson” was also made at the Sheraton Hotel Davos on January 15 and at the InterContinental Hotel Geneva on January 17, 2013.
