Ms. Ambre Naija
(Executive) Assistant General Manager
Ritz-Carlton Hotel Dubai
Dubai, UAE

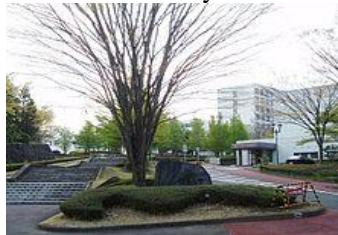

Dear Ms. Naija,

I am happy to receive your inquiry from Dubai, “I was happy to receive your letter dated from May 31, 2013. Your presentation sounds very interesting. However, may I kindly ask you what is your expectation from our side? This will allow me to redirect your request to the right person.” I sent the General Manager of the Peninsula Hong Kong and 19 Assistant General Managers of four- or five-star hotels in Hong Kong this month. Assistant General Manager, I just expect you and all kind Assistant General Managers who have a little time for visitors at high-class hotels around the world to accept the following of my request: “It would be grateful if Assistant General Manager, Bar Manager, Head Bartender and your hotel could skim through my three papers. And if your hotel is interested in my research, please pass this ‘Chairperson 20th Anniversary Treatise’ to your main bar.” We, Waseda University (first-class private university, Japan), shall strive to emphasize freedom of research and investigation, and to encourage original and creative studies, thereby contributing to the advancement of knowledge.

Twenty-nine years ago, I passed the scholastic ability entrance examination for Fukushima University (near first-class public university, Japan). For Waseda University, about 20 or 30% (“Soko”) of the undergraduates are said to have difficulty (“Muzukashii”) in passing the examination. And seven years ago, I notified the 30 professors of the National Defense Medical College (first-class public university, Japan) and Jichi Medical University (near first-class private university, Japan) that “The dates for discussion entitled ‘The Doping - Backdoor Theory since 1999’ to be held at Harvard University were not still finalized.” Unfortunately, the Supervisor of the “Highest Bar, Ozone” of Ritz-Carlton Hong Kong answered me “We don’t know the cocktail ‘Chairperson’ ” on September 20, 2013, just like Mr. and Ms. Bartender including the New Zealand No.1 Bartender of seven high-class hotels’ bars in Auckland did on January 25 2011. I send my letter which includes the schedule for a visit to the “Highest University, Harvard” in December to the Belgium Ambassador to Japan dated on August 30, 2013, today. Even famous Columbia University alumnus, Japanese Diet Member Shinjiro Koizumi, isn’t brilliant enough to overcome the barrier of the scholastic ability entrance examination for Fukushima University and Waseda University in the 21st century.
