Mr. Johnson Chiang
General Manager
Grand Hotel Taipei
Taipei, Taiwan

Dear Mr. Chiang,

I stayed at the Sherwood Hotel Taipei on November 30, 2012. I appreciate your allowing me to stay at the Grand Hotel Taipei and to make a comment to you, as I did at Osaka University, on March 8, 2013.

Mr. Achim v. Hake: General Manager of the Sherwood Hotel Taipei (Leading Hotels of the World) (November 30, 2012)

Mr. Johnson Chiang: General Manager of the Grand Hotel Taipei (March 8, 2013)

Dr. Shida provides an explanation to the General Manger

“General Manager, you always welcome VIPs from the world to your hotel. If you have time (just 15 minutes), please glance through my ‘Chairperson 20th Anniversary Treatise’ in which I had continued to make efforts to gain people’s attention of the world. We request that Taiwan stop taxi drivers from ‘Vicious Driving’ in front of the National Palace Museum in Taipei, like ‘Vicious Driving’ by taxi drivers in the International Airport of Toronto (good living city). This is similar to ‘Vicious Research’ conducted by the academic clique of Kyoto University.”
